Vol I

8/3/17 - 5/22/18

2/13/17

I bought a journal today, I thought it would be a good idea to start journaling. Mother said it might be a good idea. I probably won't really go back and read this entry, probably just start journaling. She been basically living at the court. For all off summer because going into a good mother, she tends parenting like a grown and she's really a terrible mother. I really want to move in with dad but we have made much of my problem is that and I feel like she needs, those starts on monday and I don't really want to go back home, keep quiet I could stay as long as I need. I know that if I stay past monday she will get angry but maybe that's what is needed because she pretends like nothing has happened at all.
I'm gonna try my best to keep up with this as far

Hello Hawaee you

I don't feel good at all. Maybe it because its 4:30 am. Everything is more real at night is it because its dark and theres no escape from your own thoughts. I continue to try and find why people always before. At this very moment the clearest answer would be) people only want happy people "why waste your own energy on other peoples feelings?" They left themselves live spent years taking myself out of comfort just be happy and now that live achieve what must be it... I'm not happy with it. Admitted mind contradictions the darkness. I mean whats happiness without the sadness. I feel as if I don't value the good as much. I don't recognize sadness as much as when I do I slightly ignore it so I can preserve my often newly found happiness. What kind of person am I if I don't provide for others. Oh heaven take my motivation most of summer in the hope to regain my appreciation for whats good. Is it health being happy is I pull others down. maybe I just need a different approach. recognize the pain I may suffered and use my happiness to lift up others.

I don't know

Allane and dad spoke with mom today. It wasn't necessary in figuring a fit out but it started the confrontation day and he was proud of me which always means a lot but puts really guilty me off to be honest. She brought back the bad memories of you, ~~but~~ and also made me paranoid about other things.

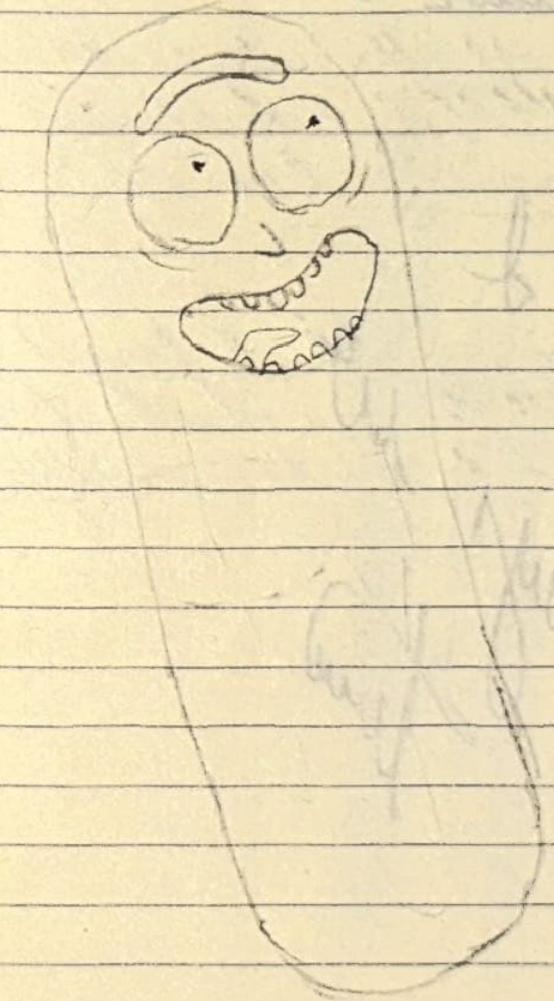

she said she would talk about alexander and me who was talking to her. I want to stop focusing on girls, its a better way and its tarnishing my reputation, I need to focus on myself from now on. and I want to help people again. I can't follow my childhood dreams anymore. I need to make informed decisions that my oath be good take a break from girls. its not good. I want to prove to people that I am more than the rumors.

Looking back at these pages makes me wonder how legible it all is.

I rather have people look at me as a good person and decline any romance I must be been pure.

TO DO 8/8

very Anxious
and Nervous

~~schedule an apt for ADD drugs and Dr. call, email~~ ~~register for faith academy do credit training.~~

I did horribly in the audition today, it would be easy to discount it on a bad day or lack of sleep but I don't know. am I not a good performer and have I been surprised. This is likely... in a moment of defeat one might give in knowing and sulking on their failure. I could do one of those things. I choose to improve.

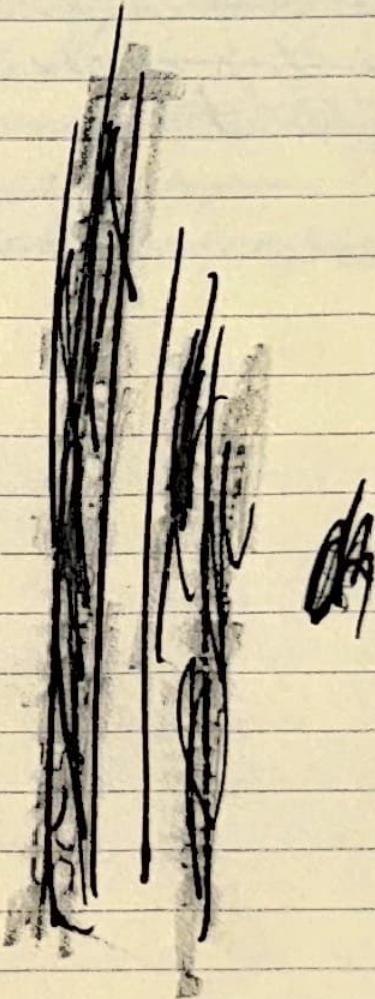

Leave it off the stage. I am not ~~Kirk~~ auditioning for a character. I am a character.

It's simple and how could I forget this. Be better, I still have a chance. I haven't done all this work to be sledable just so I fail.

To Do:

- finish Unit 3 annotations
- Do the EA assignment for today
- finish science
- finish auditory work
- go caught recovery - do it!
- finish website
- organize computer usage
- schedule computer usage?
- configure calendar or phone

I'm starting to understand the importance of sadness with happiness, what's happiness and what's it's worth if it's easy to obtain, value is often defined by something's scarcity - it's what makes things special. I read a poem about totally enduring pain, but its sometimes good to let that sort of thing in so you can value the good things.

To Ro -

- Get Courtney to film a top from me/ from positive do my the pocket
 - Growth and necessary do faith working

I've been doing theater since I was in third grade. I had always been a scatter boy onboard. I didn't have many friends and I wasn't after many happy, theater is where I found myself, found my voice. My entire life is at ~~at~~ ^{is} theater is a mix of theater. I do am who I am because of theater, it helped me find my voice, find my crowd, develop confidence, value emotion, but most and lastly I ~~at least~~ ^{as} developed my heart to entertain others and to bring joy to others through art.

I have explored many aspects of theater I auditioned and was accepted into the Summer Performance with the acting company I interned and was accepted into S-A-A A-71-M-7 program which allowed me to excel in the realm of technical theater. I was also asked to be an employee @ SAA where I have now worked at for 7 years; truly I ~~the~~ ^{have} gradually accepted the N.Y.S award for best actor in childrens theater.

I see theater as an ever-growing art form and I am always looking to grow and learn from others. I would like to say that above any they else I am dedicated to my work my passion and I can only hope to be accepted into this wonderful opportunity.

I definitely want (to go into performing arts) I have, excelled and enjoyed myself in theater for just about as long as I can remember, this art is the reason of my happiness, it fuels my passion (and) allows me to make people happy, it is absolutely what I want to do for the rest of my life.

I have an ~~unstated~~ unsatiated desire to grow as a performer and explore the world as far as in extended boundaries. I would do anything to visit this opportunity and be lucky enough to live this experience.

I got a car and I really like it. It's a blue 07 Honda civic. It feels so nice to be able to go somewhere at a moments notice. I need to fix it some and make it move me. This past weekend I went to home town, and I know it's stupid but I can't stop thinking about her. I feel like her funeral gave a little and it was just about the best feeling ever. I knew I'm being dumb and I need to worry about it because she was at all my trouble and we perfectly outgoing and witty. But she had cancer and is ill, sickly, and she is happy. She would never in a million years want me in any cluster of the imagination.

GW.

BIT WHY?

Why is she talking to me? Is it because I'm sick and she wants to help? That's certainly what it was at one point. Then there's poetry. I like her a lot but she baffles me.
Why do we seem to me and more but why do I like her. I also imagine... should I be so certain, maybe I should know my expectations because I'm just in high school. Should I care so much? However I'm so sick or drama leaving their agent and being disbanded by a girl. However I haven't been excited for anything in a long time.
I am so drained of motivation, I'm just passing through my days and I'm not wanting for anything.
I'm so tired all the time. I have have a car so I can do stuff whenever and where I want to. Why am I sad? Maybe I need to try harder to be happy. Be happy! Maybe I'm not happy because I'm not trying. And maybe I shouldn't wait for a sign or a reason. maybe I need to keep trying, especially when I don't want to.

Keep my schedule.

I worry about cabin because it leaves soon! You know why. My life isn't challenging, why try. But maybe I'm making it less challenging. maybe I should finally delete time tool. free up precious time for spontaneous activity. I am sick and tired of working past due and being so stressed. work hard. Non stop, why not? It's worth it.

To Do -

- Get notes from Jerry
- Clean room
- organize car
- Set sleep time
- organizing pills and morning routine
- ask dad about responsibility & meals
- Dorm storage and

September 29

- ask Janey for Social Studies notes
- set calendar
- do laundry
- find a chore log
- get bus
- ask dad to buy a computer
- go to adobe purchase

I'm sitting here in reflected land and it kind of sucks. I like to think "what went wrong" as if I don't know the real mentality. I suppose the desire to be an individual I have the need to be something more than just a piece of the puzzle. I hate the idea of ADHD medication. It does anyone at their right brain. They lose what makes them unique, everything is overthought and becomes technical. I was watching my life go by as if I was absolutely idly by as a spectator rather than being an active control. I didn't have many friends and I blamed my mom, although too much, I felt as if a part of me that we desperately wanted to get out was enclosed and subject to experience an unfulfilled life. So what I got goes grades life and barren and I was trudging through it alone. Yet here I am. I have an outcast who doesn't live life. I did generally, after unhappy in class, day by day. Yet when I was out and about, I didn't feel sincere, I felt selfish. You not caring everyone and giving them everything I could, just to please myself. I felt "happy" but it was synthetic, it was chemically induced, but is that so bad? All my brain doesn't allow me to be as happy as I should or maybe the sadness is a side effect of unexpressed. maybe am I being it to happen

I reread what I wrote about Tom last week and it is immensely embarrassing, if anyone were to read what I wrote in this I would be dead! So this past weekend I was at Tom's again, we watched a movie called submarine, it was an indie film about a depressed kid in whales. The music was by Alex Turner from the Arctic Monkeys. After the movie we were talking, throughout the entire movie we were cuddling, so at the end while we were talking I was telling her about something happy memories and that, that moment was one of the happiest and she knew me. She knew me and it was like a burst of bliss broke through my barrier of regret, sadness and remorse. The kind... It was so wonderful.. we kissed.

I figured out why its so hard for me to articulate its because of my dumb overbite. I tried it done with the tip of the tongue and the teeth and still its hard to make contact with my teeth and tongue.

I am at a loss for motivation, I need to talk to a therapist and find out what feels best.

I'm in mandatory right now and this week I am required to play for for for 3 weeks. I have a script, a stage, beneath me that changes one. At this moment I'm just putting together lines. and I do not like it. I am very unmotivated with everything, no get is too bad in everything. I feel very with me!

my passion is lost.

I have yet to find it.

I have no writing talents at all.

I feel like I want to die I want to die and I cannot tell anyone or they will stop me. Life lost all meaning in my life. People always leave but at everything. I'm writing at school I'm uninterested in theater and people ~~wrote~~ into me. I don't see a point, I cannot find a point, maybe there isn't a point but I understand the importance of checking and where I am and I feel like don't want to waste time. I keep thinking about how specific people would act if I filled myself. Right now nobody even if I do there would be this huge dump of fake sympathy.

What do I need to do?

- write a list for each subject and what I need to do.
- get a better free music (word)
- assign calendar time for specific things
- organize books by
- use locker
- If I don't study an schedule I will over schedule

Focus

Jesus... I hate the word Jesus I was diagnosed with ADHD in second grade. Since then I've had this internal conflict that has me question who I am and consider the consequences of happiness over conventional knowledge. I was like a collection of thoughts, cannot be live with them ever owing thoughts. They build up and they become a accumulation of self loathing feelings, that makes me suicidal. I made a decision to stop taking the medication to pursue my sanity and make me moreurable... but am I really better or is it just an illusion. Jesus... I hate the word Jesus. I absolutely hate it. I was programmed with this word when I was off exploring my own My dream state interrupted by a voice "Jesus". As if that would ever help me. I just need the Jesus, I just need to come. It's not that easy!

Why am I
the way that I am...

Why would I not change it?

do the pain
a tool?

If I didn't care. Would it be easier.

maybe I should silently suffere, but people will be worried about. If I am going to kill myself; I'm going to kill myself. At that stage and there's no much that can be done. Of course there is some in doubt behind many suicide attempts. Some wish for someone to save them. Some don't.

For a long time I saw absolute happiness as the end goal. I'm starting to believe that isn't true. Happiness is simple.
Sadness is complex, it's dark and involving.
I'm starting to believe I'm addicted to sadness. It's painful, it twists, it leaves scars. not just on me but everyone around me. as well. Maybe I'm torturing myself because I know I don't deserve to be happy or the reality that I am addicted to sadness. It is complex, and scary. and heavy. Am I drawn to this so I don't get bored?

Lendall (Almost Mine) character synopsis

Age: young, however not too young, has been 11 years about 30.

Summary: a simple man forced by a simple town: everyday is the same. But, this day her and Gale everyday being the same, its comfortable. Lendall and Gale have been together for 11 years. its an understanding that they're meant to be. However it's been so long and nothing happens, this is when Gale questions everything. She loves Lendall but she can't play this game anymore she pushes him into a closet and of Lendall East makes fun after so many years she must go. Unfortunately he still loves Gale very much and he misses her.

They're simply a part of each other's life they can barely remember life before one another. They don't get butterflies, they don't get getting around each other. Its no question to Lendall that he loves Gale however. They are life partners.

I want to be able to focus on enjoying life. I need to be organized enough that I'm not busy, not suffering in school. Focus on happiness. I think right now, organization is the key and I mean just normality

CONVICTION

When does it make too much conviction? As far as I understand, its knowing what your cause and desirability you're efforts, if you are going to do something. Not so with conviction. Being most when it comes to what you cause will only give you right, however, conviction must be matched with too much pride.
Stay humble in has its beauty, it allows other to appreciate and pass rather than to be appreciated.

I cannot get everyone full attention but I can guard all which as I can

I feel like my problems with absolute commitment came from being so dependent. I could have asked or asked want to know it, it was selfish and caused more problems than it was worth. I never see little one have fun and let people decide for you because of it.
I really like her and I want her to be my soul mate interest.

Tomorrow during 4th go in and take physics test.

This fucking writer due seems to agree that life sucks and it isn't good. At least he just we easy to not exist, frankly looking at it from another point of view. If I'd want to die. I die, I don't face the consequences. Everyone else sees the aftermath, I don't. I'm not haunted by my decisions or anything by that matter because there is no aftermath. It just ends what might I even be working towards.

I'm in a constant state of confusion. I feel like a failure in every aspect. Of and a failure in aspect, in theater as well.

I keep showing in and out of a horribly depressive episode to a low-grade day that has my heart swollen & only confirming after many and I don't know what to feel. It hasn't been very long but I am falling for her. Am I my heart

I think about putting this journal up and hope it would change the investigation of my suicide at the very moment I am sitting in the blithely procrastinating and writing instead. I am well aware that there is a much more reasonable and logical choice however I am making the conscious decision not to do it.

I sometimes have drives, motivations to do things, however it is rarely to do arbitrary tasks. I usually would anyone, ever want to do something that might yield an unpredictable outcome... it makes me tense.

I need not control my life, but my attitude towards life (for example; last night at work I had a great time and leaving they was going great but when I said to him demande they all made myself to be opinion on co-dependent with her. It twisted me into an intense feeling of sadness and regret)

Something I need to work it up and past through.

Rememberable moments need more value, I ~~do~~ will not remember a night of staying up and partying, but I will remember a lonely night with myself.

Maybe I need to take it - it usually comes to mind. Very early I wake early but of few great things now.
I look back too much into things.
I need to carefully consider every action but, I never see it go wrong. There is no right way to do something, only a more acceptable way. There is a correct ratio, don't be too nice, don't be too raw, have sympathy, don't be too local, don't be too quiet; don't be too much or too little.

I look back on things I did and I am and it makes me because I hate me and I feel like it makes me to do I look at it and it's not so much humans are unmeasurable. People mimic what they are around. That's what makes people really inappropriate.

Being unaware is not ability to the typical view constant.

So last night was a weird day, after dinner V & I went to suburban to drop off audience and machines TAC shirts, while I was in the neighborhood I heard the foreman that had lectured me about power and size I was in the neighborhood she asked me to stop by just so she could see me off from a bus. than the best. So after I went to Albuquerque to straighten out the dumb situation which was all my fault.
So at her home we spoke first I think things are at least okay at the moment. She said we all fit now so stupid right now she the last person who knew me and I do not like that. Sometimes I can be an idiot when it comes to relationships but that is going to end.

Lori is too abrupt too how she is funny and smart, and she makes me happy. I think I might be in love with Lori right.... Is it too early to love her? am I crazy for loving her... I don't think it but I am in love with Lori forever.....

Hori always talks about how she thinks about afterlife but I don't really see it. She is truly Thirty she is the most beautiful person I know but I cannot speak too obviously, I may be in love however she is 40. It hasn't been long enough for any love person. Whenever she writes these I mean to be more cool. I need to be near to give her a reason to have me.

Character should be the utmost important form. I have no idea where or who I found it from yesterday but someone said recently about how they'd rather have a power user secretly in the group than a who they one but tends to fail in the dumb subjects that hold no personal value. It is more important to be a good person to be good at memorization or stupid tasks.

People keep talking about my new writing, I myself really like it the old year it looks like this. And could easily just wait ~~for~~ all your journals! never write for an answer and it will mean that we, but not to anyone else

What are you preparing or you? If it is a desk job & makes nothing to do with it. I can see that many of the subjects may prepare one for being an engineer or a specialist in one of the subjects or even a professor. However the eternal currency is time. If I know for a fact that I will not use this in life; VISIT tell me why don't waste my time on it. I have been investigating a topic in order the peak subjects are the inferior people are essential strength or on history so it doesn't repeat itself, but only the full am of living about playing and chemistry are bizarre and celebrity practice mathematics. Most people know about current events, or how to be financially responsible I could name a multitude of subjects that would benefit me more. Now about economic studies, commerce, statistics, politics and current event studies, drivers education is useful, now the present, been too curious or treat ailment, the urine that explains what drugs and alcohol do to your body. Most of these subjects are offered however are either short course or they are mandatory. Why choose optional subjects of other ones that Would there be obvious support. After there are people, students who's brain work differently. There is no debate that everyone's brain is different, according to neuroscience people's brains are all very different in the way they work, learn science and transmit information.

So someone tell me why all of our relativity is defeat to of everybody given ans. It makes no sense! Like any trying people into mindless followers. Kid's are taught to sit there and be between and never question why we are doing this, in public school we are conditioned to blindly follow whatever we are told or in charge.

~~Everyone~~ tell me how this works from the central idea of how tyrranous dictators come in the power. We are expected to think outside the box or be individuals when we are all molded into an idyllic mass of mindless zombies. What is this stupid cycle down which we live in. Of course I understand the benefits, I see how it came to be we very people involved in this system but it is the one from which we begin. I see an obvious problem yet a imaginable solution but nobody is willing to fix it.
Why are people angry with this, and why are there not more people who speak up - or question the reason why things are the way they are.

So last night, of course, just to have it take it back a bit. I smoke up to go to school and my phone wouldn't work, a charge I will say I went to go over very strong road of didn't go to school. It was very much raining and I was going down a different highway at around 50 miles an hour, which is only 5 miles greater than the limit but went through a puddle and I went hydroplaning and my car lost traction and surprised a little. I don't know been really bad. So I know this is now the hole it does in the rain. So after that I just went home and fell asleep then went to my wine lesson, I also signed up for guitar, so later after the lesson went to tanning I got hit shot at this point. I got so terrible and was basically non-responsive. Tom was really mad you are talking and she really we feel no much better, at the end of the night we were in my car and we were at the Furniture real sounding lot. She was acting nervous and as if she were going to say something but she faltered and just said.

Knew me or claimed she had long ago which was beyond kept saying as she was getting more and more but she kept saying how great she thought I was and then she finally said it. She said "I love you" and kissed me & I was beautiful.
Hearing her voice tell me she loved me and then to embrace me.

If I do not stay, should I continue to be okay. If I allow it to manifest it generally turns into something I can no longer control. I think I need to talk to professionals. I don't feel good. Just as simple as that. I don't have a specific

What if I just didn't go to school like ... what would happen ...

ahh health

I need to talk to a professional, a therapist.

So today is my first meeting with this therapist. I will be writing down key speaking points and argue about how to get regular help. I need to get better for my sake as well as for others.

What do I want to ask about?

I feel like there's not much of a point to go to school and I don't feel motivated.

I often feel tired and unmotivated. I feel kind of like a failure because I'm so slow and bad at life.

I can't pay attention in school because I can't find a point to do it. It is arbitrary.

I don't like school. Why?

So at the appointment yesterday I spoke with this new counselor and I basically spoke to her generally about what I was going on. I expected some sort of complicated solution but she kind of brought her attention on a simpler solution that made it all make more sense. She told me about deadlines, ~~though it wasn't really what I realized~~ that if I didn't set deadlines everything is much too large to handle for understanding. stuff builds up and I need to set deadlines and plan my goals.

things are really really good with his wife Mary and it makes me happy. I feel so close to her. It happened so quickly.

I looked back and remembered when we first knew and we had all been so happy. Together for at least a month. Not just girls like an instant or will be forever at the same time.

After this week I need to go in to see Mrs. H. has my absolute favourite month which is May but I can do more. I need sleep and I need to go to class above all else. After that I can try and backlog as much time as I can with her. She also said the down "there's" she would get bored if we which is great, and, but that's not the that probably is in her mind, which, doesn't fit me anyway; makes me feel like less of a money hole etc., on kind of science

I'm just so tired... I am always going to tired. I don't know myself passing over too... empty. I'm supposed to be accepting notes in social studies but I don't know my homework as I let do it anyway.

I don't know what to do about Lori... I do love her but her mentality annoys me and its really irritating. What if I'm just not enough and she wants a woman... She has just slept with a woman and its odd for me. I hate that this bothers me and I wish it didn't. My heart hurts. All I can think about is sadness. I really wish it didn't bother me, like when we were in bed and she thought it'd make me feel better to talk about her frigging girl. I hate myself and I hate this. If it hurts for her, everything would be just perfect. My heart is broken. I just hate this so much. I just don't know where I'm going in life and it sucks. I feel aimless. They think I'm writing about social studies but I'm just not. I feel emptiness everywhere is pointless like my just a failure and I know of any it unless if I don't care & shouldn't have to worry about it.
I need to continue writing about see a point in anything. I used to not have an aim in life because nothing matters. It gets to the point where absolutely nothing matters and I actively desire just to feel anything.

"The Bear"

I want to care less about caring so much... I think that's been my biggest... well, one of my problems, anyway... there have been times in my life where I have been lucky to 'let go' completely and I'm flying but flying in such a way where it feels as though something greater than me is carrying me aloft; a connection to something higher, wider. Does that sound crazy? (beat) It's different. I want that all the time, more rooted naturally within my inner self if that makes any sense, without all the gear and mental shit that clings me up, getting in the way. The battles are exhausting. Sometimes, I get the bear and other times, the bear gets me.

"A really good person"

Theres a really good person I don't like you. And I think, look, Rebecca, just listen, I think if you heard me, if you really understood the person, I think you'd agree with me. And it's not because you're, you know, "loose" - that's a nice word I'm using because you know how considerate I am! I like a local friend anyway because it makes me look like more of a catch. Some thing with how you forget to brush your teeth after you eat there egg salad sandwiched open always Pack, or how you spit here, you know really loudly and not in a very way, like I do. And then you say stupid things like, "Oh, those poor starving kids in Africa", when really, there are a lot of rich people in South Africa who give tonnes of giraffes and stuff, so you really don't know your geography. But it's all cool with me because you being those things just makes me look better which makes you look better too, because you're friends with me. I'm thoughtful like that.

I need to remember things that I need to get done it seems like whenever things go back and I don't feel very well an event or a big something has to happen in order for me to go back

I must constantly remind myself to keep up with things -

~~Today, I turned sixteen, in~~

-3.2.18-

Today I turn seventeen years old. I still feel, I want super excited. I didn't always look forward to it. I guess as you're young you have forward to these ages, almost like you're waiting for your life to begin or an opportunity to arise. I remember being a young child and thinking that everything would change once I reached a certain age, which isn't completely untrue. Many possibilities did emerge as I became 16 I got a car. However, as sixteen came and went I still felt as if I wasn't old enough, like I was still the baby among people. This may just be a factor of having a later birthday and being surrounded by people older than me all the time. I think I just need to focus on now. I don't want to regret anything.

Today, because of the school shooting there was a walkout, it was from 10:00 am to 10:17 am, I left the theater along with Andrew and the rest of the rest of my theater class. We all walked to the courtyard behind the commons relatively quietly. Once we got there I saw an amplifier connected to a microphone. First, we had a moment of silence then we had three speakers.

- buy new pens
- bring script tomorrow of course we don't know more about theater we're highschool students, however, no matter who you are you cannot put together a production on your own, it is a collaborative effort. Creativity should be shared. Anyways absolutely. For final say, she is our director.

I'm not trying to question her intelligence I think she is plenty educated. I just don't think we are being as efficient and organized, that in no way is a fault of our space or by any one person, we aren't working as a diluted system

I'll be the absolute first to admit that I don't know everything. I know now however if I am wrong I want to be told. I have the desire to learn new things. I am not going to have excuses sit there, making an excuse since and only complain about it. I want to be told.

i It feels like I'm trying to avoid a certain future of normality, or have somewhat of a fear of being boring, being regular. Just like everyone else makes of what could have been. However, I've realized that maybe it isn't a life of trapped in suburbia that I should absolutely avoid, or a fear of organization. Rather it is a something internal. Keep life interesting by controlled spontaneity.

When I imagine the person I'm going to spend my life with I don't feel like she met her yet, which of course is understandable. I just don't feel excited about my relationship. I've been thinking a lot on the fact that a relationship doesn't always end because of incompatibility but rather because someone is an a great for rejection or maybe then (I) themselves are at fault. Maybe I'm just unhappy, and that's ok. Of course... I guess I'm agreeing a never finding my best friend, my spouse. Life like ~~this is the middle of nothing~~ is the middle of nothing. I surrendered.

Its April, which is nearly out of space. I fear that the governor rather cynical and harsh to the world around me. I feel this eagerness to get stuff done but it comes at a cost. Life is less blissful, less ~~a~~ an enjoyment. My mind

I don't know if I like that. Things are less exciting and more an obligation.

In class we watched a CNN special on the United States v.s. Richard Nixon, this, of course, regarding the Watergate scandal. I found it extremely interesting. I also started watching Argo

I feel eager to create something, I want to make and share art with others. I've had a lot of fun making TKFPE and I'm excited to show people.

Taylor wasn't going very well but Chey approached me. I felt tired and melancholy, Chey from Pictures came up to me and asked if I was okay. She gave this beautiful sketch of me with my hands on my face.

I was so against feeling depressed that I wouldn't let myself feel how I felt. She helped me realize that I was unhappy and lonely. For a moment I felt like I was okay. I stopped worrying so much about what all became and my future. I was in the now.
She managed to do all of this by asking if I am okay and asking my importance too her. It is easily the best thing that has happened to me all day.

Helle & welcome to the world premiere of the Kung Fu Panda Experience this is a production created by ~~the~~ Rehan Khatri, Andrew Clark, Brad Lasky and myself. ~~From~~ ^{now} there are cards being passed out with a ~~fast~~ QR code to the video. You can also find the video ^{11:52} @ Skadoboh pictures on Instagram, otherwise just search "The Kung Fu Panda Experience on youtube" It has been quite a journey filming with these folks. And finally, thanks of you exploiting a live action kung fu Panda you will be thoroughly disappointed.

"The Hung Fu Panda Experience" was simply an alias for the film.

Please reserve any questions or comments until the end.

Without further adieu, we present, The Hung Fu Panda Experience.

- S.D. 18c

I feel stagnated. I don't feel the overwhelming weight of depression.
I just feel like life is taking its own course. Sometimes it feels like life was more exciting when I was more depressed. I guess that's what is alarming - the need to feel important, the desire to matter.
It seems so easy to become "important" through tragedy and more destructive behaviors rather than being constructive. Not many things make me excited, even rather miserable in school. It's weird wanting to be alone but not lonely. To who do you turn for other but not be responsible for them.

I feel like I am on my regular path of happiness, though knowing that things used to be okay but I know, if I knew they things wouldn't be interesting at all. I desire to be aware, aware of myself and those around me. I often least to be aware of how things work and what's happening. Frequently it feels like the more aware I am the less exciting and happy life can be.

I least think I ever could have imagined what I am like now a year ago. I suppose that proves that its better to concentrate to worrying about how things will turn out.

There are so many conflicting messages. I guess the (rarely) good person is what people think you are if they bring from a degree that in a particular direction they find easier to reach that medium, or that average.

I'm in a strange place where I have realized that everyone is just as significant as a person that I am. I struggle because I know I'm unimportant I am in the rule of the entire universe. I think of (5) (skip 2 pages) time I accidentally stepped on sugar & feel as if that must have bothered me so badly before but now it doesn't seem to matter.

This is a book for me and only me. I look at and feel feel disposable. People have molded me to not value others feelings.
Or we have to feel much of anything; to feel sad feels weird and accelerating. to see and feel happy feels fake and trivial. am I less approachable. Is that the I really want. What are d ~~is~~ going to. what do I need. What's the point of asking that, why do questions. a few simple ones Why do I feel bad we alone I am. things get like this

I'm afraid of writing but in order to maintain anything, even happiness is a sacrifice. I need a balance?

I don't know what that balance in two things smaller/greater I don't know.

I like to imagine that the woman I'm going to marry is somewhere out there in the world living her life. I have no idea what she is or what she's doing, but she's there.

I like to believe that someone is out there. I like the fact that I don't know where things will eventually be. However I also hate it think about looking into jobs.

SUNSCREEN

it feels very dependant. it feels like an electric and disconnected to everything. its not a normal sadness.

its not a choice I have. ~~I don't care~~ its a lack of pleasure, nothing excites me I can hardly remember a time where I felt carefree, where I wasnt worrying about everything and what MIGHT happen.

am I doing the right thing? am I really insignificant? it feels like people can see right through me.

Sometimes I ducked myself to see if anyone noticed they often closed

Even in a season that seems silent I can still feel myself too become overwhelmed.

what do people think when they look at me.

Sometimes I do things that I know hurt me in order to when I feel anything.

I don't know why... I know I shouldn't

I awoke again today. I managed to sleep through 6 alarms. It feels so hard to get up in the morning. It's hard to make myself go to school when I know I'll be miserable. People don't talk to me, if anything, I'm in the way. Working on things I know I'll never use or will need in life seems so redundant... counter intuitive.

Life isn't that fun anymore, I can hardly remember a time where it was. All I do is cleaning & cleaning & cleaning the night away, I just want people to be happy, it feels like everything is cleaning. Sometimes it becomes too much, I try not to let things get to me but sometimes all the little things build up and ruin me.

There have been times where I ~~don't~~ do something that I know will hurt me, ~~even though~~ just to remind myself I can feel anything.

SPEED RACER WACKY MOMENTS

- Ep. 1 8:28 - 8:32 - 8:34 - bite pony hand
- Ep. 1 9:59 - 10:01.5 - trixie weird laugh
- Ep. 1 10:25 - 10:28 speed weird face
- Ep. 1 13:25 - 13:27 weird gay hand today I need to do a couple of shots. Once I get home I need to do the girl shot. the getting up shot out of bed. and the freedom inside car shot. see the in class sheet at lunch.

Time to do small acts shots.

— my dream I just remembered —

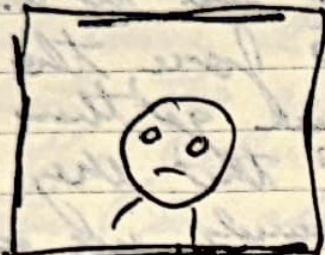

I had a weird dream about meeting an assassin, there was some sort of unseen threat that we were avoiding. I think I was with ana at SAA and we were were in trouble, at one point we were at home and some man in a suit men in white shirt were coming to the front door, myself and I ran this from the inside of course we were further away. seemingly in Johns circle we had to end up in at SAA in due time, deal with it, was arrested. we got to SAA and were in State 2. I had a shotgun, single barrel only shot air had to acquire permission to go to station 5. Once the safe with the gun in it. we got there and there was the large id that they were working on it was just bounds. we went to the back left corner of the safe and already over its back shelves on same was strong and there was a shelf with color coordinated tools with other chips. I couldn't find gas, found a dumb like }

tick tick

I overslept again today... I slept through 6 alarms.

I don't feel very good.
I had to sit very quietly in the car.

I don't enjoy school that much. People don't usually talk to me. I hate dairy things, that seem so grosse. I know I don't need them. I feel much better eating something that feels so gross.

->

it's hard for me to face.—

I feel so melancholy - so aimless, like in drifting along. life is not very enjoyable.

I know I should be happy, I shade be a lot of things - but did just not.

I worry about being a burden to people a lot.

I worry that I won't be able to support myself or be with the right person in the future

I worry about not being angry

I worry about people I care about and how happy they are

I worry about money

I worry about why she here

I worry about my family

↓ SO ON

— A SILENCE —

But ~~everyone~~ every once in a while there's one tiny that breaks through all the commotion. one little tiny that pulls me back down to earth. and reminds me that I'm okay.

I will be okay. and I can keep going. it's remarkable how such a small gesture can entirely change a situation or even save someone's life.

there are the moments I like to remember. there are the moments I hold near and dear.

Keep Going!

Today is my second to last day to of Junior Year; yesterday I had my music and US history final which were both fairly simple. After the music one again spoke for an hour and a half about how things are supposed to change next year. Something tells me that's not going to happen. People sometimes are who they are and you can't always control that. I want to start writing three good things that happen each day. I can this an need it. It forces you to look for good things and document them.

I should tell dad about that.

I ordered dad a notebook like this too. I also ordered myself a new one because I'm nearly finished.
